

JIM NEWSOM and the CLOUDLESS SKY

JIM NEWSOM and the CLOUDLESS SKY were voted “Best Acoustic/Folk” Artist in the 2022 VEER Music Awards, the regional equivalent of the Grammy awards. Led by singer, songwriter and multi-instrumentalist Jim Newsom, the band includes Gail Keller Smith on keyboards and Rick Jobavy on drums. Their concert repertoire draws from Jim’s catalog of original songs as well as a mix of tasty covers.

The band’s latest album, Peace Love Happiness, is Jim’s tenth album overall. Released in February, 2021, the recording features fourteen new originals written since his previous release, New Set of Dreams.

Jim has been a mainstay at regional festivals and concert venues for forty years, and performs at coffeehouses, craft breweries, libraries and art centers. A longtime music journalist and TV host for the local PBS affiliate, he is often featured on regional television and radio programs. His recordings have received extensive regional and national airplay along with critical acclaim.

“The gold standard for songwriting.” – Michael Crockett, Nashville Songwriters Association International

“Relentlessly positive songs...a carefree feeling like a day spent hiking in the hills or strolling on the beach.” – Paul Shugrue, WHRV-FM

“The original songs, about love, life’s choices and feeling good, have a go-down-easy, James Taylor-Joni Mitchell, flower-power vibe.” – Craig Shapiro, The Virginian-Pilot

“The greatest live performance I have ever seen by a local musician.” — Sandy Adcock, musician and artist
